CHIEF BROWNING ISSUES INSTRUCTIONS TO OFFICERS

Ogden, Sept. 12.—The recent crusade against sambling in Ogden has again brought to light the fact that the city and state laws are entirely inadequate to really suppress the crime, which, under the statutes, is merely a misdemeanor and therefore punishable as such. The city ordinance provides that every person proven guilty of gambling shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, which, in plain English, means that the officers of the law have no authority to break late a gambling dive, such as exist in contemptuous violation of the law on Twenty-fifth street in Ogden, by force, and they are not allowed to confiscate or destroy the gambling paraphernalia found therein. The officer who takes it upon himself to batter down a door is guilty of a greater crime than the gambler, according to the interpretation of the law. When the police department of Ogden receives instructions from the city council to take every lawful means to suppress the crime, they are therefore not much better off than before such orders were given. Ogden has 15 members on the police ferce, who work in shifts of eight hours each. This means that only five men are on duty at a time and therefore very little extra work can be done. The following communication from Chief of Police Thomas E. Browning to the members of the police department is self explanatory and shows that the officers are doing their best under existing circumstances. According to the best judgment of the chief ander existing circumstances. According to the best judgment of the chief and other city officers, an effort should be made to have a bill allowing much needed improvements in this matter pass the legislature. The chief's letter follows:

Ogden, Utah, Sept. 9, 1910.
To the members of the Police Force,
Ogden, Utah:
Gentlemen—There seems to be an imression that the police officers are not taking any effort to suppress gam-

If in any way you can secure evidence or gain entrance to such places, it will be your duty to place the offenders under arrest.

In order to suppress gambling or prosecute the offenders, it will take the co-operation of the entire police force, and I expect each and every one of you to use every lawful means to carry out this order. While on duty try your very best to establish a case against them and if you can get any information that will satisfy the making out of a complaint, do so, and have a warrant issued for them.

If you do your full duty in this regard and make every effort possible, it will be all that is required, and if it appears to you that you need help at any time, call up the station and you will be given assistance.

will be given assistance. Respectfully yours.

CARPENTERS' UNION PRESENTS ITS CASE

Ogden, Sept. 12.—In a signed statement issued by a committee from the local carpenters' union, composed of T. H. Reeder, D. Lansing, J. D. Redford, I. L. Wimber and P. A. Steers, an explanation of the causes leading up to the carpenters' strike on June 11 is set forth in order that the public may understand their position rightfully and because they feel that the union has been misrepresented and subjected to unjust criticism. The statement says unjust criticism. The statement says that as early as Jan. 1, 1910, the matter of wages was discussed and that on March 16 a resolution was presented to the contractors asking for an increase of 50 cents per day, thus making the wages of a journeyman carpenter $4.50 per day. The contractors refused to allow the increase and hence the walkout on June II. Since that date building has been noticeably very backward and efforts have been made to have the differences between the contractors and carpenters amicably adjusted, thus far without avail. In the statement of the union men, they say that the mayor has asked them to arbitrate the matter and providing the contractors feel disposed to make certain concessions, there is every likelihood of an early adjustment. contractors asking for an increase

FUNERAL SERVICES.

Ogden, Sept. 12.—The funeral of Wil-Ogden, Sept. 12.—The funeral of William S. Lochhead, who met an untimely death in an automobile accident on the Hot Springs road last Tuesday, was held Sunday afternoon at the Fifth ward chapel, Bishop H. C. Jacobs presiding. The services were largely attended and the floral offerings were in great abundance. A quartet, composed of Mrs. Polly Jones, Mrs. Tillie Poulter, Hagbert Anderson and Orson Griffin, rendered beautiful music, and selections were also rendered by Mrs. Polly Jones, Mrs. Tillie Poulter and Mrs. Mary Farley. The speakers were William Moyes, President James W. Wotherspoen, David Frame and Ray Townsend. The local members of the U. T. C., of which deceased was a member, attended in a body, as did the Scotch Cronies. Interment was had in the city cemetery, where the grave was dedicated by Archibald McFarlane.

The funeral of Jacob Heiloo was held Sunday at noon in the Fifth ward chapel, Elder Everett Neutabomb presiding. The music was furnished by the Holland choir. The speakers were Herman Denkers, J. W. F. Volker, Patriarch Georze W. Larkin and Everett Neutabomb. The services were well attended and the floral emblems were numerous. Interment was had in the city cemetery. numerous. ROAD IMPROVEMENT.

Ogden, Sept. 12.—When the many delegates to the convention of the Intermountain Good Roads association visit Ogden from Sept. 23 to 29, they will find every road in the city and many of the county driveways, including the canyon boulevard and the North Ogden road, in an exemplary condition, if the plans of the Ogden Automobile association are carried into effect. The slogan "Begin at home" has had much weight with local automobile owners and a petition will be presented to the city and county authorities to use every possible effort to level and clean up all the streets. This will help to enthuse all visiting delegates and will be a decided benefit to the city, especially as the Intermountain fair will be in progress at that time and all visitors will be given an opportunity of seeing Ogden at her best.

OGDEN BRIEFS. Rapid progress is being made on the work of building the new Marion botel on Lincoln avenue and Twenty-fifth street, and within 10 days the contractors expect to start laying brick. The massive retaining walls, which will be of concrete, will be completed by the end of the week.

A marriage license has been granted to Joseph A. Jardine and Luella E. Green, both of Lewisville, Ida., by Jounty Clerk S. G. Dye.

CARMAN BADLY MUTILATED. DIES FROM INJURIES

While O. S. L. switch engine 570, in charge of Foreman O. Newey, Engineer Daley, was pulling a furniture car from the Scuthern Pacific track No. 7 in Ogden freight yard, at 4:55 p. m. Sunday, William Wardiaw, a carman who had been making repairs on the car, got on the west side of it. In this position he was caught by a Union Pacific coal car, standing on Southern Pacific track No. 6, and was rolled between the two cars. The furniture car cut off Wardlaw's right arm, broke his left arm, and badly bruised his head.

The unfortunate man was carried at once to the hospital in an ambulance, where every attention was given him; but he died at 5:25 p. m., from shock and loss of blood. The railroad officials are investigating.

ST. GEORGE. DIXIE FRUIT FESTIVAL WAS BRILLIANT SUCCESS

(Special Correspondence.)

St. George, Sept. 9.—The Dixle fruit festival has come and gone—the music, the flowers, the oratory, the grove brilliant with numerous electric lights, and lest but not least, the tables loaded with the peerless Dixle fruits, are now but a memory. The great lessons of industry, energy and integrity taught by the lives of the pioneers, and emphasized in the eloquent addesses of Hon. Thomas Judd. Prof. J. H. Paul, Prof. H. R. Driggs and Dr. E. D. Ball, should find lodgment in the minds and hearts of all. The committees having the afair in charge had the tablen beautifully decorated with bunting. Ings and flowers, and piled high with fruits of many varieties and ellicious qualifies. The city had provided electric lights for the occasion. The St. George Silver band discoursed sweet music. Great throngs of people had gathered in the tablernacle grove at 8 o'clock p.m., the hour set for the festival. It was a beautiful picture that greeted the sight at this hour. In the center was a grand stand on which was a beautiful display of fruits from this valley. At this table were seated the Silver band, the speakers and the guests of honor. Around this were long tables, loaded with delicious fruits. After the speeches, music and recitations, the people were invited to help themselves to the fruit and melons (Special Correspondence.) "Water, water, everywhere," etc.
You have probably noticed frequent articles in the papers about the water conditions, recommending that you boil the water, and various other things.
We have an inexpensive solution for this question. Let us send you for your table use in the next few months some Appollmarls, White Rock, Bethesda or Still Rock Water. These waters are germ-free and chem-Bolled water, by the way, contains all the germs that ordinary city water does. Some doctors say a dead germ in your stomach does just as much harm as a live one.

We deliver any of these waters in any quantity. Still Rock comes only in half gallons, met to the second We've built
